The Origin of Royster Fertilizers.

Mr. Royster believed that success awaited the Manufacturer of Fertilizers who would place quality above other considerations. This was Mr. Royster's idea Twenty-seven years ago and this is his idea to-day; the result has been that it requires Eight Factories to supply the demand for Royster Fertilizers.

BLOOD, BONE

FERTILIZERS

ATLANTA, GA.

When the farmer buys fertilizer, he is providing plant food for his crop—not for a week or a month, but as long as there is need of plant food as a sustaining and maturing element. Unless he buys with this one idea prominently in view, he lays himself liable to losses incident to a stunted growth both in stalk and fruit, and to the greater loss of shedding. All these losses can be avoided by the use of our "Supreme" and "Southern Big" Brand Fertilizers, which are made of the highest class of materials known to the trade.

Blood, Bone and Tankage, prepared according to our improved methods, feed the crop continuously from the time the seed sprouts till the crop matures. They stand the drouths and wet seasons much better than other fertilizers and keep the plant in much better condition. They are finely ground and absolutely dry, thus insuring easy, even and uniform distribution.

Call on your nearest dealer for a copy of our 1911 Year Book. If he can't supply you, write us direct and we will promptly mail you a copy so you can see what our customers say about them. Our Fertilizers have made big crops for others, give them a chance to do the same for you.

Don't be satisfied to buy "just guano," but INSIST on getting the "Supreme" or "Southern Big" Brands. They are all good.

Death of Mrs. Emma Mullikin.

In Seneca, S. C., the death angel has visited the quiet home of Misses Nora and Carrie Carver and removed their only near relative, Mrs. Emma Mullikin, who passed into the great beyond on Monday, March 6.

And we are made to wonder why the Great Destroyer came into the home of these two orphans and took their only near relative and left them sad and broken-hearted.

The dear one left them the full assurance that she would go on before them to join with many loved ones who had preceded her to the home of the blessed.

And why should we lament and cry,

Or wish her back again, Since she has gone to her long home.

With Christ to live and reign. She had many friends to mourn for her. She was the wife of Frank Mullikin, of Six and Twenty. Cousin.

Special Meeting.

Notice is hereby given that a special meeting of the Board of County Commissioners will be held in their office in the courthouse on next Monday, 27th inst., for the purpose of organizing and the transaction of any business that might come before the body.

JAMES B. CRAIG,
County Supervisor.
JAMES P. CAREY, JR.,
Clerk of Board.

Health of this community very good at this writing.

Farmers in this section are progressing nicely with their farm work. Hauling guano is now the order of the day.

S. aborn conducting the funeral services. He leaves a wife and two children besides a host of relatives and friends to mourn his death. Mr. Goudebeck is gone but not forgotten.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Nations, who for three months has been seriously ill, is no better at this writing.

Died, on the 11th ult., at the residence of his son, near Prater's Creek church, Mr. John Watson, aged 80 years. He was buried in Prater's Creek cemetery the day following his death.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Porter gave the young people a pound supper on the 11th, which was heartily enjoyed by all present.

Gates school closed on the 10th, after a successful term of 4 months under the management of Prof. W. W. West, who is a hustling teacher.

Miss Dora Alexander visited Miss Nora Nations, Sunday. They report a fine time.

Prof. W. W. West visited at the home of Mr. J. D. Nations last Monday. Rainbow.

Mr. Buyer, Ponder Over This

Two farmers were not long since discussing their local paper. One thought it had too many advertisements in it. The other replied: "In my opinion the advertisements are far from being the least valuable part of it. I look them over carefully and save at least five times the cost of the paper each week through the business advantages I get from them." Said the other: "I believe you are right—I know that they pay me well and rather think it is not good taste to find fault with the advertisements after all." Those men have the right idea of the matter. It pays any man with a family to take a good local paper for the sake of the advertisements if nothing more. And if business men fail to give farmers a chance to read advertisements in the local paper, they are blind to their own interests, to say the least of it. "You never trade with me," said a business man to a prosperous farmer. "You have never invited me to your place of business and I never go where I am not invited; I might not be welcome," was his reply.

Clemson College.

At no time has the Y. M. C. A. been so fortunate as they were last Sunday evening, 19th inst., by getting the great orator, Mr. Pyatt, of Nebraska, to address that organization. His subject was "Spiritual and Secular Life." He demonstrated their similarity by proving that the only perfect man—Jesus Christ—spent nine-tenths of his life in secular affairs.

Among the delegates from Clemson that are going to attend the Spartanburg Sunday school convention is Mr. C. W. Garrette.

Prof. M. W. Morrison, of Clemson College, accompanied by Cadet B. G. Field, attended the County Teachers' Association at Six Mile Baptist Academy, last Saturday.

A rumor was spread among the boys last Saturday that Mr. L. C. Gilstrap had deserted the barracks. After a close investigation it was to our glad but shocking surprise to find that Mr. Gilstrap had only been out visiting a boarding house near by—"boarders."

Dr. and Mrs. Brackett have been delightfully entertaining all the Senior and Junior sections, taking each section in succession.

An Able Charge

A dispatch from Hampton says: The court of general sessions convened here this morning, Judge G. E. Prince presiding, and quite a quantity of business was transacted. The charge of Judge Prince to the grand jury was a gem of logic and reason. He spoke at length on the condition of schools, the school system in South Carolina, the necessity of some supervision by the members of the grand jury, and recommended some material changes in the present common school system, which would give to the teachers and superintendents of education higher salaries, and then getting better men, and getting men from other states if they cannot be found in South Carolina.

He told the grand jury that if they found any pupil in any school in the county who could not be whipped by the teacher, because of the fact that the parents of the child had forbidden whipping, that they, as grand jurors, should present the names of the trustees of such school, in order to hold the names of such parents up to public scorn.
